Summary

Please provide a brief summary of all regulatory changes, including the rationale behind such changes. Alert the reader to all substantive matters or changes. If applicable, generally describe the existing regulation.

The Food Regulations establish minimum sanitary standards for operating restaurants. These standards include standards for the safe and sanitary maintenance, storage, operation, and use of, the safe preparation, handling, protection, and preservation of food, including necessary refrigeration or heating methods, procedures for vector and pest control, requirements for appropriate lighting and ventilation not otherwise provided for in the Uniform Statewide Building Code, requirements for an approved water supply and sewage disposal system, personal hygiene standards for employees, particularly those engaged in food handling, and the appropriate use of precautions to prevent the transmission of communicable diseases. The regulations also inform potential restaurant owners or operators how to obtain a permit to operate a restaurant from the Department. The regulations are being amended to be consistent with the 2003 supplement to the 2001 FDA Food Code. The current Food Regulations are based on the FDA 1999 FDA Food Code. These changes are also being proposed concurrently with the Virginia Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services' (VDACS) adoption of the 2003 supplement to the 2001 FDA Food Code. Pursuant to § 35.1-14 C and E of the Code of Virginia, this action is exempt from portions of the Administrative Process Act provided VDACS adopts the same version and both agency's regulations have the same effective date. Both agencies are working to that end. However, since VDH's current Food Regulations are based on the FDA 1999 Food Code, VDH is simply amending our existing regulations. VDACS, on the other hand, is adopting the FDA Food Code for the first time.
